Give the unique gift of song this Valentine's Day

Elmhurst, Ill.— This Valentine's Day, give the gift of a love song to that someone special in your life. The award-winning Sweet Adelines Chorus, the Choral-Aires, is offering Singing Valentines throughout Chicago's western suburbs from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., Thursday, February 14. The Singing Valentine gift costs $40, which includes a love song performed in four-part harmony, a chocolate rose, a card, and a keepsake picture. Singing Valentines are also available on the phone, at a discounted cost of $20. The phone valentines can be purchased for loved ones anywhere in the United States.

For more information about the Singing Valentines, or to place an order, call Barb Ehst at 630-960-0039 or Kathy Van Maren at 847-227-8770. More information is also available at the Chorus' website <http://choral-aires.com>, or on www.singingvalentines.com.

More than 100 women from Illinois and Wisconsin sing tight harmonies a cappella (without instrumentation) with the Choral-Aires Chorus, a Sweet Adelines International medaling chorus, and the 2012 Lake Michigan Region 3 Champion. This program is partially supported by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency. More information about the Chorus can be found at their website, <http://choral-aires.com>.
